2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school.

Characteristic spirit and general objectives of St. Mary's Secondary School Newport

St. Mary's Secondary School Newport is a Catholic, co-educational, voluntary secondary school, with a Catholic ethos, under the trusteeship of CEIST (Catholic Education an Irish Schools' Trust).

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998, the Board of Management of St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school, as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic voluntary secondary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims to promote:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

Catholic education is therefore a lifelong process of human growth and development which has been at the heart of the Church's mission since Jesus Christ urged his disciples to 'go teach all nations'. The person of Christ is the core of Catholic education.

St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport draws on the richness of the religious and cultural heritage of the past, interpreted and lived out for students living in today's world. The charisma of Catherine McAuley of the Sisters of Mercy, who began this school, is of very significant importance in the life of the school.

As a CEIST school, St. Mary's Secondary School values teaching as one of the most important of all human activities. Our school seeks to build a quality learning community that welcomes, and bears witness to the Gospel values of Jesus Christ, expressed through the lens of the CEIST Charter. These are encapsulated in the core values, which are intended to support and nourish the lives of the people who are at the heart of our schools.

- Promoting Spiritual and Human Development
- Achieving Quality in Teaching and Learning
- Showing Respect for Every Person
- Creating Community
- Being Just and Responsible

St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport is inspired by the words of Jesus Christ to his disciples, "I have come that they may have life and have it to the full" (Jn 10:10). Because of this, St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport provides a rich, holistic education in the Catholic tradition where engagement with, and development of, the whole person; the intellectual, moral, religious, physical, spiritual and psychological are at the core of our practice.

Education has as its goal the formation of a human person who is free, rational and mature in relationships. St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport offers educational opportunities which promote excellence, so that students can respond responsibly and creatively to their own lives, the lives of others and to the earth, which is our common home.

In St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport, the dignity and uniqueness of every human being as a child of God is acknowledged and affirmed. The Catholic school is an inclusive community, ideally built on love and formed by the interaction and collaboration of its various components: students, parents, teachers, non-teaching staff and members of the Board of Management. Catholic schools are also outward looking. They are connected to their local parish and Diocese, and other local organisations, which enrich the life of the school. Our school draws on the rich resources of the local community and, in turn, contributes to the life of the local community.

As a Catholic school, Religious Education is central to our curriculum. Alongside Religious Education, the school supports the formation in faith of our students through many school-based experiences of prayer and ritual. All students' spiritual growth is further enhanced through such areas as sport, language, nature, art, poetry and music.

St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport is a Catholic co-educational voluntary secondary school with a Catholic ethos under the trusteeship of CEIST.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Mary's Secondary School, Newport shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school, as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Ethos & History.

St. Mary's is a co-educational secondary school that offers a varied and wide ranging curriculum. The school is structured and geared towards providing educational facilities suited to the needs, interests and range of abilities of its students.

The secondary school, which opened with a small enrolment, has continued to expand until it now has a student population of over 600 pupils. Through the years of its development and expansion, St. Mary's was always ready to meet the challenges posed by new ideas in curriculum, in accordance with the ever changing and growing needs of its pupils. Since 1988 the school has been run by a Board of Management- comprising of two parents, two staff members, and four appointees of the Trustees. In continuing the Sisters' policy of sharing responsibility with their lay colleagues, a lay principal was appointed in 1989.

The Sisters of Mercy, as Trustees, continue to have a large involvement in the management of St. Mary's Secondary School, and as members of the teaching staff. The Mercy Order itself has responded to the needs of today's world, and has matured and evolved. From this strength, the transition to a Board of Management and to lay Principalship has been shaped and achieved. The Sisters are still committed to being involved in the educational process, and their personal dedication is seen in a new and important way as teachers and as guardians of a trust that they have cherished for years. The school is now under the Trusteeship of CEIST (Catholic Education, an Irish Schools Trust).

As a CEIST school, St. Mary's Secondary School is committed to:

- Promoting spiritual and human development
- Achieving quality in teaching and learning
- Showing respect for every person
- Creating community
- Being just and responsible

St. Mary's will continue to strive to meet its aim of developing and educating each individual student, so that he/she is given the opportunity and encouragement to reach his/her full potential.

The School has achieved a justifiable reputation over the years, through the dedicated commitment of its highly qualified and hard-working staff. We hope that the future generations who come to St. Mary's will benefit from the excellent tuition and facilities that the school can offer them, so that they will face life filled with hope and confidence.
